Introduction

TWOFOLD

Designed to Fold. Made to Create.

Twofold is a modern stationery brand that reimagines everyday paper products through a balance of functionality, thoughtful design, and contemporary aesthetics. Built for people who write, sketch, organize, and create, Twofold transforms simple paper products into purposeful tools for everyday creativity.

Core Idea

Twofold believes good design should feel simple, useful, and inspiring. Every product is thoughtfully designed to reduce complexity, enhance everyday use, and create more possibilities for creativity and expression.

Brand Philosophy

Less complexity. More possibility.

About Twofold

Twofold brings together function, craftsmanship, and contemporary design to create paper products that fit naturally into modern everyday life. From notebooks and writing products to drawing and creative stationery, each product is thoughtfully designed to balance practicality, quality, and refined aesthetics, making everyday stationery more useful, enjoyable, and inspiring.

Brand Overview

Vision

To become a distinctive and trusted stationery brand known for thoughtful design, dependable quality, creative products, and a modern approach to everyday paper experiences, while inspiring people to write, create, organize, and express themselves.

Mission

- To create high-quality stationery products that combine functionality, creativity, and contemporary design.
- To design products that make everyday writing, sketching, planning, and creating more enjoyable.
- To continuously improve through design innovation, product development, and attention to detail.
- To build a consistent and trusted brand experience across every product and customer interaction.
- To make stationery that supports ideas, creativity, and everyday expression.

Brand Promise

At Twofold, we promise to create stationery that reflects our commitment to quality, functionality, thoughtful design, and creativity. Every product is designed with attention to detail, balancing practical everyday use with a refined and contemporary experience. We strive to create more than paper products—we aim to create tools that give ideas space to take shape and creativity room to grow.
